1. Welsh Team Selection Procedure

- a. Each discipline shall hold a number of selection shoots every year. Any member who hasn't competed in the minimum number of shoots required for selection will not be eligible for the team. The minimum number of shoots required to be eligible for the team is equal to the number of scores to count as outlined below:

Discipline	Qualifying Shoots	Scores to Count
ABT	8	4
DTL	8	4
Sporting	8	4
Olympic Skeet	6	3
National Skeet	8	4
Olympic Trap	6	4
FITASC	5	3

- b. Team selection is on a points basis, the highest Welsh member eligible for the team taking 0 points, and points added for each shooter dependent on their score from the high gun score.
- c. The members who have the lowest points of the scores to count shall be selected for the team provided that they meet all the qualifying criteria.
- d. Members who qualify for the team in more than one category shall shoot for the category that will allow Wales to field the strongest team possible.
- e. WCTSA/CPSA rules will apply to all competitions and any conduct unbecoming of an association member will be reported to the Executive Committee and may result in disciplinary action.

2. Team Composition

- a. The Welsh team for each discipline shall consist of:-

Discipline	Seniors	Juniors	Ladies	Veterans	Super Veterans
ABT	12	3	3	3	3
